Coldwater United Methodist Church

Third Sunday after Pentecost

Centering Thought

"If God so loved us, how ought we to love one another! But this motive to brotherly love had been totally wanting if not Adam had not fallen. Consequently we could not then have loved one another in so high a degree as we may now. Nor could there have been that height and depth in the command of our blessed Lord, 'As I have loved you, so love one another.' Such gainers may we be by Adam's fall with regard both to the love of God and our neighbor." - John Wesley in his sermon 'God's Love to a Fallen Man' (1782)

"The early church faced many of the same problems we face today, congregations were pushed to their limit. They were tired, some may say even struggling. Attendance was concerning, missionaries dragged their feet, volunteers and many others worn thin considered why? And in the midst of all this a sermon came along, written to people just like us, written for us; to encourage, uplift, and refocus. This is the book of Hebrews. 13 chapters of cheerleading, good news, and the hopeful response of Christ. "Lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees and make straight paths for your feet so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed." (Hebrews 12:12-13). Join Pastor Scott for a 4-week Bible study in the book of Hebrews held Sunday July 2, 9, 16, and 23rd immediately following 2nd service."
